We're honoured to invite you to join our discussion on how countries in Central Asia address issues related to social protection systems, public services and sustainable infrastructure to contribute to transformative change for women and girls and ensure that no one is left behind. High-level government representatives from Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan will highlight sub-regional perspectives, experiences and lessons learnt as well as the existing challenges and gaps in the provision of quality, equitable, and accessible social protection systems, public services, and sustainable infrastructures for the achievement of gender equality and women's empowerment.

THIS SIDE EVENT WILL BE CONDUCTED IN RUSSIAN.
