

Members of the Beijing+30 Civil Society Steering Committee

N°	Name of the NGO	Country	Profile of the organisation	Representative
1	FemTech	Azerbaijan	For over 2.5 years, FemTech has been a leading advocate for women in Azerbaijan, promoting entrepreneurship, innovation, and technology. Dedicated to empowering women, the organization offers programs like incubations, FemTalks, bootcamps, and more to help them establish and grow their businesses.	Nargiz Amrakhova
2	European Student's Union	Belgium	The European Students' Union brings together 44 National Unions of Students from 40 countries across Europe. It champions the rights of women, disabled and refugee students, leading policy efforts on issues like gender-based violence, student vulnerability, disability rights, and socio-economic inclusivity.	Emily MacPherson
3	CURE Foundation	Bosnia and Herzegovina	Formally established on 7 November 2005, the CURE Foundation is a feminist-activist organization dedicated to promoting gender equality through educational, artistic-cultural, research, and advocacy programs. CURE advocates against various forms of exclusion, including gender, sexual, class, racial, ethnic, health, and economic, to ensure the inclusion of women and girls.	Selma Hadžihalilović

4	Women's Information Center	Georgia	The Women's Information Center (WIC) is a non-governmental organization dedicated to advancing gender equality, promoting women's empowerment, and protecting women's rights. Established in 2000 and officially registered as a legal entity in Georgia in 2003, WIC operates under the guiding motto "Women can, Women act, Women change." The WIC's target constituencies include rural and vulnerable groups, IDPs, conflict-affected populations, and national minority women, men, and youth.	Elene Rusetskaia
5	FemAgora	Kazakhstan	FemAgora, a Central Asian civil society organization, was established in 2018 by women, gender-sensitive experts, grassroots practitioners, artists, media professionals, and researchers from all five Central Asian republics. Registered in 2019 as a public foundation in Kazakhstan, with representatives across Central Asian capitals, FemAgora aims to enhance women-led ecosystems, promote intersectional practices, and elevate the diverse ideas and contributions of Central Asian women and girls through public engagement, resource-sharing, solidarity building, knowledge management, and creative production.	Xenia Udod
6	KAMEDA	Kazakhstan	KAMEDA serves as collaborative platform that brings together civil society, business experts and certified trainers with extensive experience in non-governmental organizations, international agencies, and the business sector.	Mahabbat Yespenova

7	TechnoWomen	Kazakhstan	TechnoWomen, a non-profit organization registered in May 2022 at the Astana International Financial Exchange in Kazakhstan, is dedicated to creating opportunities for girls and women in the digital economy, promoting gender equality, and combating all forms of discrimination.	Aziza Shuzheyeva Galiya K. Uali
8	Gender-Centru	Moldova	The Gender-Center [Gender-Centru – in Romanian] is a research and training NGO, with a team of professionally trained members in different research areas focusing on gender and development issues. The Gender Center has been very active at national and regional levels in the area of gender equality, sexual and reproductive health, GBV, empowerment of women and girls.	Valentina Bodrug-Lungo
9	Center for Research and Policy Making- CRPM	North Macedonia	Established in 2004, the Center for Research and Policy Making (CRPM) is a leading think tank dedicated to integrating cutting-edge social science research into its projects and products. Through its research initiatives, CRPM has significantly influenced policies in areas such as education, health, social protection, economy, sustainable development, prevention of violent extremism (P/CVE), discrimination, human rights, and gender equality.	Marija Risteska
10	Ucan Supurge Vakfi (Flying Broom Foundation)	Türkiye	Established in 1996, Flying Broom initially focused on amplifying the voices of women and women’s organizations, striving for a more just world where women are empowered and gender equality is upheld. With a commitment to raising awareness on	Prof. Dr. Reyhan Atasü Topcuoğlu

			various issues including violence, legal rights, representation, visibility, and creativity, Flying Broom has been instrumental in addressing the issue of child and forced marriage, bringing it to the forefront of Turkey's agenda.
11	The Federation of Women Associations of Turkiye – TKDF	Türkiye	The Federation of Women Associations of Turkiye (TKDF) is an independent women's umbrella organization that aims to achieve gender equality and end violence against women using a feminist and rights-based approach in its activities.	Duygu Ozturk
12	Rural Women Business Network	Ukraine	Established in 2021, Rural Women Business Network - RWBN is led by rural women, women-farmers, and experts in sustainable rural development and agriculture. The organization is dedicated to enhancing the well-being of rural women and girls by addressing various issues such as discrimination, gender-based violence prevention, leadership development, advocacy for access to services and resources, entrepreneurship promotion, and implementation of ecological technologies to improve productivity and product quality.	Oleksandra Harmash