

BUILDING FORWARD RESILIENT and SUSTAINABLE ECONOMIES and SOCIETIES

25 MARCH, 16:00 – 17.30 (CET)

In light of this year's CSW priority theme on women's full and effective participation and decision-making in public life, Sweden as the Chair of the OSCE and UN Women Regional Office for Europe and Central Asia, will bring together stakeholders to discuss women's participation and decision-making in economic life and in the labour market, as well as governments' critical role in incorporating a gender perspective to ensure equitable economic recovery that contributes to peace and security. Through the lens of the Women, Peace and Security agenda, participants will explore avenues and priorities for building more resilient, gender equal, inclusive and sustainable economies, ensuring that no one, especially women and girls, are left behind.
